FROM ADJUTANT EGNER.

EDITOR BULLETIN: Having orders to farewell from my present command and proceed to an appointment in the States, I would like, through the columns of your paper, to thank the many kind friends who have shown such practical sympathy with our work since the advent of the Army to the islands. First of all we praise God for the prayers and cheering words of faithful Christians. Next to that we are indebted to many, both Christians and otherwise, who have so generously helped us to carry the financial end of our burdens. Since Jan. 1st of this year, an average of eighteen meetings per week have been held in Honolulu, Hilo and Waialuku respectively, resulting in 298 persons professing conversion. At the great farewell banquet and meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Hall June 24th my successor, Adj. Simonson, will be introduced. I trust that many will turn out and give him a grand welcome, for his works' sake.

Adj. Geo. D. Egner.
